

MARQUIS JETS

Background- Founded in 2001, Marquis sells 25 hour cards granting exclusive access to the NetJets fleet of aircraft.

Value Proposition- Aircraft are mostly operated by NetJets. Flyers access the NetJets fleet without the need to buy a fractional share. Marquis offers flat rates per hour making the cost for each trip fairly predictable.

Concerns- Buyers should be aware that there may be times when flights are supplemented with aircraft outside the NetJets fleet. Buyers should be aware that funds may expire at the end of the agreement. Posted prices may not include other fees such as fuel surcharge, overnight charges or taxes. Large deposits and a minimum commitment is required to access this program.

GiveJet- GiveJet offers the same type of aircraft at a savings of typically 15%-45%, depending on the trip. GiveJet offers one way pricing. There are no long term contracts or large deposits required and there are never black out periods.
